2. RISK CONTROL MEASURES

Giving top priority to risk prevention, the Company implemented stringent control and made prudent decisions in respect of the purchase of the Wealth Management Products on the principle of protecting the interests of all the Shareholders and the Company. The Wealth Management Products purchased by the Company and Guangzhou CSR Times are of a principal-preservation nature with low return and low risk. During the term of the Wealth Management Products, the Company will keep in close contact with each of Agricultural Bank, SPD Bank, BOC, Changsha Bank, Bank of Communications, Guangfa Bank and CITIC to monitor the operation of wealth management funds, strengthen risk control and supervision, and strictly control the safety of funds.

3. INFORMATION ON THE GROUP

The Group is principally engaged in the sale and manufacture of train-borne electrical systems and electrical components.

4. REASONS FOR AND BENEFIT FOR ENTRY INTO THE WEALTH MANAGEMENT AGREEMENTS

The subscription of the Wealth Management Products, which are of principal-preservation with low return and low risk, with certain temporarily idle raised proceeds of the Group was conducted on the premises that such investments would not affect the working capital of the Group or the operation of the Group's principal businesses.

The subscription of the Wealth Management Products is conducive to improving the capital usage efficiency and generating investment return from the Group's temporarily idle raised proceeds. As such, the Directors are of view that the Wealth Management Agreements are fair and reasonable and in the best interests of the Group and the Shareholders as a whole.

5. IMPLICATIONS UNDER THE LISTING RULES

Each of the Wealth Management Agreements by itself does not constitute a discloseable transaction of the Company under Rule 14.06 of the Listing Rules. However, pursuant to Rule 14.22 of the Listing Rules, when the relevant subscription amounts under the Wealth Management Agreements are aggregated, one of the applicable percentage ratios exceeds 5% but is lower than 25%. Therefore, the Wealth Management Agreements, on an aggregate basis, constitute discloseable transactions of the Company and are subject to the reporting and announcement requirements under the Listing Rules.
